Let Us Fight For Our Liberty
And The Flag That We All Love

WORDS & MUSIC BY

CHARLES FOEHR

PUBLISHED BY GLOBE MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
Charles Foehr, Mgr., PAWTUCKET, R.I.

"LET US FIGHT FOR OUR LIBERTY"

And The Flag That We All Love

Words and Music by CHARLES FOEHR

VOICE
PIANO
There was dear old George Wash-ing-ton help'd to make our When our coun-try lies in dan-ger, let us try our coun-try free, For he fought for dear old Glo-ry and the flag to save, As they fought of old on Bunk-er hill, don't for-land of lib-er-ty, Give a cheer for dear old get those he-roes brave, Let the Em-blem of our Un-cle Sam and a coun-try all our own, Let us Stars and Stripes wave on stee-ples up a-bove. And we'll

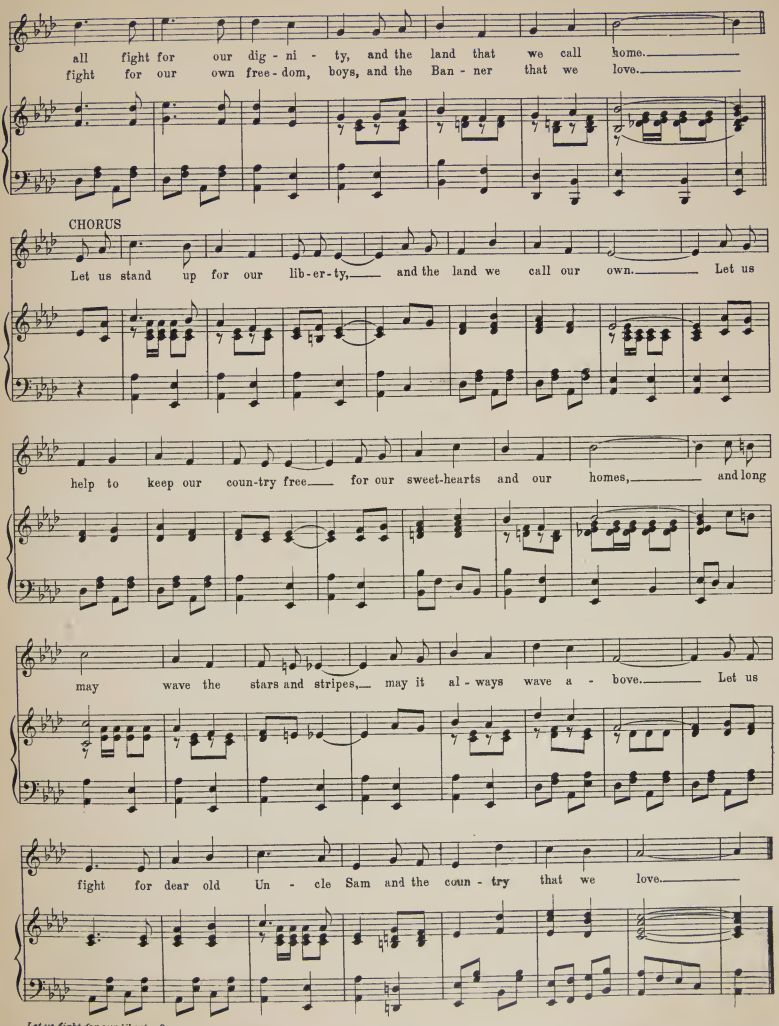
Copyright, 1917, by Charles Foehr



all fight for our dig - ni - ty, and the land that we call home.
fight for our own free - dom, boys, and the Ban - ner that we love.
CHORUS
Let us stand up for our lib-er-ty, and the land we call our own. Let us help to keep our coun-try free for our sweet-hearts and our homes, and long may wave the stars and stripes, may it al - ways wave a - bove. Let us fight for dear old Un - cle Sam and the coun - try that we love.

Just A Dream At The Break Of Day

Words by HAROLD HEATH

Music by
CHARLES FOEHR

Each morn - ing dear I have a dream, A Each morn - ing dear I have you near, To p dream of you my love Each morn - ing dear you cheer me when Im blue Each kiss I take from

Copyright 1915 by Heath & Foehr

AFTER THE BATTLE

Words by HAROLD HEATH

Music by
CHARLES FOEHR

Man - y a moth - er is wait - ing Wait - ing to hear from her Man - y a heart breaks with sad - ness Man - y a soul dies in p boy Man - y a sweet-heart is sigh - ing pain Man - y a face loses sun - shine
p

Copyright 1916 by Charles Foehr
All Rights Reserved
International Copyright

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES